PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Save the Children Federation, international child welfare organization, has brought help and hope to uncounted thousands of underprivileged children, their families and communities during the past thirty-five years; and

WHEREAS, the Federation has grown from a county program in the Southern Appalachian Mountain region in 1932, to a worldwide organization currently administering 12,000 sponsorships and scholarships, distributing three million pounds of used clothing and encouraging child, family and community self-help in depressed and developing areas in our country and overseas; and

WHEREAS, the Federation is a pioneer of self-help methods to combat the causes of social and economic disadvantage, and directs self-help programs today in Appalachia, among the American Indians, and in Korea, Italy, Greece, Latin America, Africa, Lebanon, France and South Vietnam; and

WHEREAS, this organization is registered with the U.S. State Department Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid and is a member of the International Union for Child Welfare, and is voluntarily supported each year by thousands of South Dakota citizens and school children who regularly donate clothing and other gifts to Federation programs which benefit the lives of deprived people and their children:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby designate October 16, 1967, the Federation's 35th Anniversary, as-- and urge all citizens to fittingly and generously observe this day on behalf of underprivileged children throughout the world.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 14 day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-seven.

Nils A. Boe
NILS A. BOE, GOVERNOR
